Case No. _____

FINDINGS OF FACT AND ORDER APPOINTING GUARDIAN OF CHILD
(Hearing Waived)

1. A Petition for Guardianship brought under N.D.C.C. Section 27-20.1-06 was filed by

_____

(petitioner's/co-petitioner's full name(s)) for appointment of a guardian/co-guardians for the above-named child.

2. A hearing is not required because:

all parents who are required to consent to the guardianship consent in writing; or all parents are either deceased, or their parental rights been previously terminated by court order; and no objection to appointment of the guardian has been raised by the minor, the Guardian ad Litem, or any other person within ten days after service of the Summons and Petition for Guardianship.

24. Powers and Duties of Guardian/Co-Guardian: The guardian/co-guardian shall have the powers and duties conferred under Chapter 27-20.1 of the North Dakota Century Code (N.D.C.C.).

a. When neither parent is alive, OR every living parent's parental rights have been terminated by court order, the guardian has the following rights:

i. The right to the physical custody of the minor and the right to determine the nature of the care, placement, and treatment of the child, including ordinary medical care as well as medical or surgical treatment for a serious physical condition or illness which in the opinion of a licensed physician requires prompt treatment, except for any limits the court may impose.

ii. The right and duty to provide for the care, protection, training, and education and the physical, mental, and moral welfare of the child, subject to the conditions and limitations of the order and to the remaining rights and duties of the child's parents.

iii. The authority to consent to the minor's adoption, marriage, and enlistment in the armed forces of the United States.

- b. A guardian is not liable to third persons by reason of the parental relationship for acts of the minor.
- c. The guardian must take reasonable care of the minor's personal effects and commence protective proceedings if necessary to protect other property of the minor.
- d. The guardian may receive money payable for the support of the minor to the minor's parent, guardian, or custodian under the terms of any statutory benefit or insurance system, or any private contract, devise, trust, conservatorship, or custodianship.
  - i. The guardian may receive money or property of the minor paid or delivered by virtue of Section 30.1-26-03 of the North Dakota Century Code (N.D.C.C.). Any sums received must be applied to the minor's current needs for support, care, and education.
  - ii. The guardian must exercise due care to conserve any excess sum for the minor's future needs unless a conservator has been appointed for the estate of the minor, in which case the excess sum must be paid over at least annually to the conservator. Sums so received by the guardian are not to be used for compensation for the guardian's services except as approved by order of the court or as determined by a duly appointed conservator other than the guardian.
  - iii. The guardian may not use funds from the minor's estate for room and board that the guardian or the guardian's spouse have furnished to the minor unless a charge for the service is approved by order of the court made upon notice to at least one of the minor's next of kin, if notice is possible.

- iv. A guardian may institute proceedings to compel the performance by any person of a duty to support the minor or to pay sums for the welfare of the minor.
- e. The guardian has the authority to facilitate the minor's education, social, or other activities.
- f. The guardian has the authority to authorize medical or other professional care, treatment, or advice. A guardian is not liable by reason of this consent for injury to the minor resulting from the negligence or acts of third persons unless it would have been illegal for a parent to have consented.
- g. The guardian shall inform the court of any change in the minor's residence within thirty days of the change, but must seek prior authorization of the court to establish or move the minor's residence outside of the state.
- h. In determining what is in the minor's best interest, the guardian shall take into account the minor's preferences to the extent actually known or reasonably ascertainable by the guardian.
- i. To the extent reasonable, the guardian shall delegate to the minor responsibilities for decisions affecting the child's well-being.
- j. The guardian may not delegate authority as a guardian under a power of attorney without prior approval from the court.

25. Conservatorship: A conservatorship for the child  is  is not necessary under N.D.C.C. Chapter 30.1-29. If a conservatorship is necessary, the guardian/co-guardian shall commence protective proceedings under N.D.C.C. Chapter 30.1-29.

26. Interested Persons: The following are interested persons for the purposes N.D.C.C.

Chapter 27-20.1:

27. Contact and Visitation Between the Child and Parents:

Given the Court's findings that visitation between Mother/Father and the child must be restricted, visitation shall be as follows:
